

STUDENT RIGHT TO KNOW

A Statistical Overview

Dunwoody College of Technology, in an effort to provide institutional transparency to our stakeholders, has posted on dunwoody.edu/about/facts institutional statistics outlining retention rates, graduation rates, placement rates, student to faculty ratio, and other data which demonstrates the characteristics of the stakeholders we serve and the quality of service Dunwoody provides.

Federal law requires colleges and universities to provide certain information to current and prospective students and their parents. In order to facilitate that disclosure, Dunwoody provides the following Student Right to Know information (<https://dunwoody.edu/about/accountability/student-right-to-know/>).
